Course Title	Foundations of English Language
Course Length	Six weeks
Target Audience	Open for all
Prerequisites (if any)	none
Language of Instruction	English

Course Description
This course will introduce participants to the four main skills: reading, writing, listening, and speaking, with a particular focus on grammar and its comprehension. Participants will be familiarized with preliminary grammar and mechanics of writing, learn to develop different types of sentences and paragraphs with a focus on identifying and rectifying their own spelling and grammar mistakes. They will learn, practice and use language rules and simple communication skills through hands on activities. Assessment will be in the form of quizzes, in-session tasks, and oral presentations. This course is geared towards making the learning of the individuals as interactive as possible by actively engaging them in their learning process and by providing individual and group feedback.   Please note: This is a beginner level English language course.
